Obenour, Ullom Win Sheriff Races; Lehner Beaten in Bid for Re-election

Reidenbaugh And M'Curdy Nominated

Reed Ours, A. L. Watt Win Other Contests In Republican Party

Republican Glenn Obenour and Democrat Elmer E. Ullom copped nominations for sheriff and Republican Carl H. Lehner was unseated as a county commissioner.

These were the highlights of Tuesday's primary election in Marion County, acording to unofficial returns.

Obenour, an Erie Railroad policeman who resides at 269 Madison Ave., edged out Kenneth E. Fields of 495 Forest St., by almost 400 votes to take the hotly contested Republican nomination for sheriff. The other three Republican candidates trailed behind.

Ullom, now serving as a deputy sheriff, snowed under George W. Moore of 237 Chase St. to take the Democrat nomination for the post —the only county office to be contested on the Democrat ballot. Ullom lives at 797 E. Center St.

McCurdy, Reidenbaugh Picked

In a close race Howard McCurdy of near Marion and Incumbent Ray A. Reidenbaugh of 223 Gurley Ave. won Republican county commissioner nominations. Incumbent Carl Lehner of near Marion and Neil Weirick of Martel lost out on their bids for the nomination. Lehner was running for a third term as a county commissioner.

Results of other county races for contested posts follow:

The Republican nomination for county recorder was won by Arthur L. Watt of 490 Oak St. He defeated Harold E Andrews by about 1,100 votes.

Reed Ours of near Marion ran away with the Republican nomination for county engineer He won over Jack Tozzer of near Marion by nearly a two-to-one count.

Sheriff Race in Spotlight

But it was the Republican race for the sheriff's nomination that took the spotlight locally. Unofficial returns gave Obenour 3,349 and Fields 2,952. Following them were Ora DeWeese of 156 Park Blvd. with 1,154, Edward Arthur Stayner of 133 Kierx St. with 324, and Paul R. Gebauer of 706 Gurley Ave. with 289.

A great majority of the telephone calls made to The Star throughout the night were inquiries on the GOP sheriff race

Second in interest shown was the contest for Republican nomination for two county commissioner posts. Victors McCurdy and Reidenbaugh had 600 more votes than Lehner. Returns gave McCurdy 4,176, Reidenbaugh 4,150, and Lehner 3,550. Weirick got 2,123.

Trailing in early returns, Arthur Watt came back to win easily over Harold Andrews. Watt ended up with 4,321 and Andrews had 3,218.

In the race for county engineer Reed Ours picked up 5,146 and his opponent Tozzer got 2,898.

DEER SEEN IN YARD

A full grown doe was seen by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris of 586 N. Greenwood St. around 6 a.m. today, in a lot at the rear of their home. After surveying the surroundings for a while it evidently was frightened by something as it snorted, whirled, and leaped away to the north and was soon lost to sight.

Simpson And Liggett Win District Races

J. E. Simpson of Forest, now Republican representative from Hardin County, and L. L. Liggett, Marysville Democrat, received their respective party nominations for state senator from the 13-31st Senatorial District of Ohio.

Nearly complete returns from the seven-county district show:

Simpson polled 12,751 votes to defeat two opponents, C. A. Naus of Upper Sandusky and Herbert G. Hahn of Quincy. Naus received a total of 10,047 votes while Hahn polled 7052 in the Republican primary.

Liggett polled 8179 votes to defeat Maurice McMahon of Kenton who received 4923.

In the Republican race, Simpson carried three counties, the same number carried by Naus. However, Simpson piled up impressive margins in Marion, Hardin and Union Counties to overbalance his opponents. Naus carried Seneca, Wyandot and Crawford Counties while Hahn carried only his home county, Logan.

Liggett missed a clean sweep of the district counties by a 201-vote margin in Hardin County. McMahon polled 718 votes in that county to 517 for Liggett. Liggett's most impressive margin came in Crawford County where he polled 2050 votes to his opponent's 867.

The vote in Marion County, with 52 of the 55 precincts reporting, gave Simpson 3065; Naus 2442; and Hahn 1429. Liggett polled 2082 votes here while McMahon received 1396.

County, Area Back Taft, Kefauver

Delegates Pledged To Ohio Senator Get 4-1 Majority

Marion County joined the Eighth Congressional District in giving Senator Robert A. Taft and Senator Estes Kefauver wide margins in their quests for presidential delegates at the national conventions.

The county voted nearly four to one for Taft delegates-at-large over representatives of Harold Stassen. Taft district delegates got better than a four-to-one majority of the county's Republican vote.

Both the Kefauver delegates-at-large and district delegates grabbed a two-to-one majority in the county.

The Associated Press, which kept a tabulation of the district races throughout the state, reported Taft and Kefauver delegates were elected in the seven-county 8th District, which includes Marion County.

Taft Men Elected

8th District Taft men elected were Marion Hinklin of Marion and Edwin S. Naus of Upper-Sandusky.

Kefauver delegates sent to the National Democratic Convention from the district were Kenneth M. Petri and Douns C. Spitler.

The race for the Republican nomination for governor in the county was almost a photo-finish. Charles P. Taft, brother of Senator Taft, got just 22 more votes than Former Governor Thomas J. Herbert. Unofficial returns gave Taft 3652, Herbert 3630, and Roscoe R. Walcutt 869.

Milligan Ahead Here

Fred J. Milligan had a edge of county votes on John W. Brown in the Republican lieutenant governor contest. Milligan got 2994, Brown 2852, and George V. Woodling 1748.

Marion County Democrats showed a preference for Michael V. DiSalle in the race for U. S. senator. He got 1655, John W. Donahey 1609, James M. Carney 395, and George L. Mark 231.

Ted W. Brown took the lion's share of county votes in the Republican secretary of state race He got 4840 and Edward J. Hummel received 2683.

In the contest for the Republican nomination for judge of the Ohio Supreme Court, full term commencing Jan. 1, 1953, Frances B. Douglass got the edge in county votes. He received 4147 and Willard D. Campbell picked up 2871.

FOUND GUILTY

CLEVELAND (AP)—Glenn O. Baker, 22, of Mansfield was found guilty today of complicity in the passing of a questionable $125 check here. Mrs. Genevieve Pogue, 22, of Chambersburg, Pa., had previously pleaded guilty in the case and testified he knew nothing about it.

12,123 Votes Set Record In Marion County

A record-breaking total of 12,123 Marion County voters marked their ballots Tuesday.

It was the largest vote ever recorded for a primary election in the county. The figure is unofficial and the official count may prove to be slightly larger.

The election also may have set some kind of mark for time and work. There was a 12-hour lapse between the time the first precinct reported and the last one to report.

Green Camp Village finished its tabulation at 10 p.m. Tuesday night. Marion Township South did not report its results until 10 a.m. this morning.

Most of the precincts reported tabulations much later than usual. The reason—election workers had to count votes of an unusually long list of candidates.

The ballots were also a headache to voters. In addition to being long, they were more complicated than usual. The Associated Press estimated it took the average Ohio voter three to four minutes to mark a ballot.

This time delay caused many of the polls here to have long lines of voters awaiting their turn.

Brilliant Flash But No Boom

Atomic Blast Lights Up Sky Over Nevada Desert

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An atomic blast, touched off from a tower at the Yucca Flat test area brilliantly lighted up the predawn sky today.

Scores of persons from hotel rooftops and lawns saw the light flash white across the cloudy sky and then dim to a ruddy hue.

Buildings in this resort city, 75 miles from the test area, became plainly visible for a moment as though from "white sunlight."

The flash, occurring at 5:15 a.m. Pacific Daylight Time (7:15 a.m. Eastern Standard Time), appeared as a "quick blink" in Los Angeles, 250 miles away

An atomic cloud became visible above the mountains between here and Yucca Flat, but it disappeared quickly.

There were no apparent effects from the blast here. No shock was felt and there was no sound.

Eleven residents of Groom Mine, 20 miles northeast of the firing area, were moved out last night. They won't return until radiation monitoring crews report the mine area safe.

Atomic Energy Commission aides had warned residents of St. George, Utah, 125 miles north of here, and of Caliente, Nev., 165 miles northeast, to be prepared for a shock from the A-blast.

C. P. Taft Defeats Ex-Gov. Herbert; DiSalle Is Victor

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Charles P. Taft, brother of presidential candidate Robert A. Taft, won the Republican nomination for governor today in a slow count of Ohio's primary election ballots.

Former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert of Cleveland, his only close rival in a three-man race, conceded defeat at 6:30 a.m.

"I guess the handicappers assigned me too much weight to carry," Herbert told newsmen in Cleveland. He jumped into the race just before the filing deadline last February and his home-county GOP organization endorsed Taft.

Former Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle captured a four-way race for the U. S. Democratic Senatorial nomination.

DiSalle, ex-mayor of Toledo, ran with the blessings of President Truman, Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland and Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who is unopposed for the Democratic nomination to an unprecedented fourth term.

DiSalle's strength made him the November election opponent of Republican Sen. John W. Bricker of Columbus, unopposed for renomination and ardent foe of government controls.

Returns from 6,382 of 10,312 polling places in Tuesday's voting gave these results: DiSalle 131,258; James M. Carney of Cleveland 69,936; John W. Donahey of Hudson 60,959 and George L. Mark of Cleveland 19,390.

Gubernatorial race returns from 6,315 polling places gave: Charles Taft of Cincinnati 217,887; former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert of Cleveland 191,728 and State Sen. Roscoe R. Walcutt of Columbus 57,593.

The Taft-Herbert returns included 1,000 of Cuyahoga County's 1,759 polling places, 600 of Hamilton County's 1,025, and all of Montgomery County's 358.

The senatorial race totals included 600 Cuyahoga County polling places 600 from Hamilton County, and Montgomery County's 358.

Carney, minority leader in the Ohio House of Representatives, edged ahead of Donahey after the son of the late governor and U. S. Sen. A. Vic Donahey held second place for a time. Carney had the backing of his party organization in Cuyahoga County. He had hoped to pile up enough home-county votes to offset downstate DiSalle strength.

Charles Taft openly supported brother Bob's presidential candidacy but the senator held aloof from the gubernatorial race.

Both Tafts, sons of the 27th president of the United States, campaigned widely over the state.

Defends Republicanism

Charles Taft spent considerable time defending his Republicanism. That usually occurred during the fairly frequent appearances of the three candidates for governor to-

Truman Gets Bill Allowing Refund To Marion Man

A bill to return to Harvey T. Gracely of Marion the sum of $17,640 he paid the government for alleged violation of wartime OPA regulations, passed by the United States Senate last month, went to the White House Tuesday, The Associated Press reported today.

The House of Representatives gave its approval to the bill Tuesday.

The alleged violation occurred while Mr. Gracely operated the Springbrook farm west of Marion near the end of Bennett St. He paid the money to OPA to avoid a suit, as he had been accused of selling high-grade sausage and other pork products at over-ceiling prices.

A congressional committee said Gracely consulted an OPA official who told him his price schedule was permissible, but later another OPA official reversed the first and said overcharges had been made.

Officer in Korea Wins Hardin Co. Nomination

Kefauver Gets 24 Delegates, Jolts Party Stalwarts

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft swept the boards today for Ohio's 56 Republican presidential delegates as Sen. Estes Kefauver won at least 24 of 54 Democratic nominating votes.

Taft turned into a landslide victory a home-state primary battle with former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota. There were 47 Stassen delegate candidates, most of whom said they would have backed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as second choice.

These smashing results of Tuesday's record-breaking vote turnout put the Ohio senator back on top in his race with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for Chicago convention delegates.

Kefauver, defeated by a narrow margin by Sen Richard B. Russell of Georgia in Tuesday's Florida popularity primary, salvaged much of his prestige here. He cracked wide open an Ohio Democratic organization attempt to keep its delegation sewed up under the favorite son banner of former Sen. Robert J Bulkley.

Running only a partial slate, Kefauver won 24 delegate races and was leading in four others for a possible final total of 28—one more than a majority of the state.

The Bulkley slate, which got 22 of its delegates elected in the absence of competing Kefauver candidates, actually had won only four direct contests.

Might Get 27

If the trend remained in later counts, the Bulkley group might wind up with 27, tying the Kefauver total.

In a state primary contest, Charles P. Taft, brother of the Ohio senator, won the Republican nomination for governor. He will be opposed in November by Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, renominated without opposition.

Senator Taft claimed his complete sweep of the Ohio delegates put him out in front of Eisenhower by 401 votes to the general's 271.

An Associated Press tabulation, including the 56 Ohio delegates, credited Taft with 332 votes and gave Eisenhower 281.

Republicans gave all of their delegates a full vote, but Democrats picked 16 at-large representatives with only a half-vote each and named 46 district delegates with a full vote each.

The three and one-half to one vote victory of Taft's 10-vote at-large slate gave David S. Ingalls, his national campaign manager, a delegate seat at the Chicago convention.

Kefauver entered only eight half-vote candidates in the at-large race, but a tide of ballots in his behalf seemed on the way toward putting his group of relative unknowns far ahead of such Democratic figures as Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland, former Sen. James W. Huffman and Bulkley himself.

Lt. Gov. George D. Nye, who topped the Bulkley slate, was about 23,000 votes behind the lowest man on the Kefauver slate with half the state's precincts counted. Kefauver's top delegate, Herbert Duffy was about 44,000 ahead of Nye.

But because Kefauver had entered only eight half-vote delegates in the at-large contest, a similar number of Bulkley delegates would get to go to Chicago. Those apparently would include Bulkley himself, Sawyer, Burke and Huffman.

CIO May Lose Out

A Kefauver sweep apparently would deny delegate status to the CIO's Jacob Kroll and AFL's Philip P. Hannah. However, George M. Harrison, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, was within the group of eight Bulkley delegates likely to be elected.

Duffy, the leading Kefauver at-large candidate, was getting about 60 per cent of the state-wide vote.

The leading Bulkley candidate, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, was getting only about 30 per cent of the State-wide vote.

Kefauver's Ohio showing was certain to jump the Tennessee crime-busting candidate into the leader in national Democratic convention delegates.

Without counting the Ohio results, W. Averell Harriman, mutual security administrator, had 96½ votes, mostly from New York. Kefauver's county stood at 91½.

Kefauver's run jolted the Ohio Democratic organization severely. His tide of votes was such it threatened to deny Albert A. H. Hortsman, Democratic national committeeman, a place on the Chicago delegation as a district candidate.

Given Cold Shoulder

The organization had turned a cold shoulder to Kefauver after he had refused to go along with a suggestion of leaders that he stay out of the state and take his chances with other candidates of getting Ohio backing at Chicago.

Bulkley and others had hoped to keep the Ohio group uncommitted to be in a good trading position at Chicago. They had tried to interest a succession of "favorite son" candidates after President Truman said he would not run and wouldn't be drafted.

Gov. Lausche had turned down a proposal to become that "favorite son," as had Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

After a complimentary vote for Bulkley on the first ballot, some of the Bulkley delegates may take refuge with Lausche on subsequent counts until they see how the wind is blowing.

Russell Takes Florida On Farmers' Vote

MIAMI (AP) — North Florida's farmer vote today gave Senator Russell of Georgia the boost he needed to defeat Senator Kefauver of Tennessee in this state's Democratic presidential popularity contest.

It was a jolt for Kefauver who hadn't been whipped before in a presidential preference primary. But the farmers who are Russell's next-door neighbors turned the trick.

Russell's margin was slender throughout the night although he was out in front all the way. The late rural vote counts from Tuesday's primary slowly but steadily built up his margin of victory.

The vote from 1380 of 1662 precincts: Russell 275,728, Kefauver 249,862.

Russell had 50.7 per cent of the total vote cast in the presidetial race to 46 per cent for Kefauver

The big issue between Kefauver and Russell was the administration's proposed Fair Employment Practices Commission which

Asks $12,492 In Damages

Suits Arise From Traffic Accidents

Damage suits totaling $12,492 were filed in Common Pleas Court Tuesday by Harold Hirneise of 380 Park St. against Thomas Kappel Inc. of Springfield.

The suits arise out of an accident May 9, 1950 in which Raymond Hirneise, ten-year-old son of Harold Hirneise, was struck by a truck owned by the Springfield corporation.

The petition alleges that the accident occurred at N. Main and George Sts. at 12:20 p m as the boy was crossing the street. The boy's injuries were listed as a compound fracture of the right leg and lacerations of the head.

The petition alleges the truck was speeding, was not under control the driver did not apply the brakes to prevent the accident, and the boy had entered the street in accord with the traffic light.

The father claims $372 for medical expenses, and $120 for time lost at work. A suit filed by the father for his son claims $12,000 for the injuries suffered. The law firm of Maloney and Kelly represent the plaintiff.

No Money Is Needed For Prearrangement . .

You can't lose anything by prearrangement of funeral service. It is not a plan for asking you to pay money in advance.

Prearrangement is exactly what the word implies. You merely decide what you would want in service and merchandise. You can settle the matter with a signed contract if you want one. Then you have complete protection and are out nothing. It is as simple as that.

FIRST REALLY NEW MOTOR CAR FEATURE IN YEARS!

Oldsmobile Announces the Amazing New
AUTRONIC-EYE!

1. Here's how Oldsmobile's sensational new Autronic-Eye works! Your headlights are on "Bright" as you sight an oncoming car . . .

2. Normally, you would have to switch your beam to "Dim." But, with the Autronic-Eye, your lights are lowered automatically, electronically!

3. And once the car is past, the Autronic-Eye saves you another foot operation. Your headlights flash back to "Bright" again—all automatically!

Automatically Dims Your Headlights for Approaching Cars!

The feature of the year . . . in the car of the year! It's Oldsmobile's revolutionary Autronic-Eye*—another engineering "first" for the car that's always ahead! The new Autronic-Eye automatically, electronically dims your headlights as another car approaches—brightens them again after it passes by. Tests show that this sensational device saves hundreds of foot operations in normal night driving in traffic! That means less driving tension—more motoring comfort—and, above all, greater driving safety! The Autronic-Eye is another "feature for the future" from Oldsmobile—builder of the superbly styled "Rocket"-Hydra-Matic* cars! See us soon and try the amazing Autronic-Eye in a brilliant new 1952 "Rocket" Oldsmobile!

*Hydra-Matic Super Drive, Autronic-Eye—and white sidewall tires (when available) optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice. A General Motors Value.

Oldsmobile's Autronic-Eye is conveniently located on the left side of the instrument panel.

More Volunteers Needed

Ground Observer Corps To Go On 24-Hour Duty

The Ground Observation Corps of the civilian defense organization, of which the Marion Observation Post is a part, is scheduled to go on 24-hour duty in Ohio and 27 other states throughout the U. S. on May 17. Dr. R. E. Eicher is supervisor of the Marion Post.

The 24-hour duty, called Operation Skywatch, was announced recently in Washington as a means of increasing the air defense potential of the Air Force.

The Ground Observation Corps, a nationwide volunteer civilian organization, serves as an Air Force auxiliary by reporting aircraft activity to the radar network.

Report on Aircraft

The Marion Post, located on top of the Uhler-Phillips Building affords excellent aerial surveillance of the area in and around Marion. Aircraft spotted by observers at the post are reported to the Columbus Filter Center where information is collected from many similar posts in the northern region of the state. The information is in turn relayed to an Air Force radar station. The system thus provides the Air Force with a quick and accurate picture of aerial activity throughout the region and enables it to keep track of all aircraft in this section of the state.

Although organized in 36 states, only 27 states in the Ground Observation Corps will be affected by Operation Skywatch. According to Dr. Eicher, these are the states which Air Force officials feel are best suited at present to maintain a full time operating schedule.

Organized In 1950

The Ground Observation Corps was organized in February, 1950, based on the aircraft warning service employed during World War II. The Marion Post was organized in May 1951, and observers have been serving in a training and standby status up to this time.

Due to the planned 24-hour duty and length of Operation Skywatch, the Marion Post is in need of more volunteers, primarily the day shifts when men are employed in regular jobs. Teams of two volunteers will man the post for four-hour periods. If enough volunteers are available, Dr. Eicher has pointed out, no team will be scheduled more than once a week.

Those wishing to become a member of this defense group are asked to contact Dr. Eicher at 187½ E. Center St., phone 3-8181.

KISS FOR "HERO." When this photo was taken, Dickie Letts, 8, was kissing his brother, Nelson, 15, shortly after he had rescued him from a fire in their Chicago home in which their father perished. Later in the day, the "hero" confessed to police that he had set the fire in his own home and four others because he "liked to see the flames."

Patrol Lists Three Crashes, Four Arrests

Three accidents on Marion area highways Monday were reported by the state highway patrol.

Robert Garver, 23, of 639 W. Columbia St. was charged with following too closely after his car struck the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Margie Strong of near Galion at 4:10 p.m. Both were traveling west on Route 30-S, about a mile east of Marion. Minor damage to the cars was reported.

Patrolmen treated Garver for lacerations of the forehead. He was cited to appear in Marion Municipal Court Thursday.

Cars driven by Robert Willis, 31, of East Hills, N. Y., and Joseph Snow, 17, of Dayton were extensively damaged when they collided on Route 42 near Cardington at 3 p.m. Willis was driving north and Snow was going south.

A car driven by Loren Tischer of near Mt. Gilead was demolished when it was struck by a car driven by Oscar Falkenstein, 66, of Worthington three miles north of Williamsport on Route 42 at 10:35 p.m. Tischer was traveling south and Falkenstein was attempting to turn south from a private drive. Falkenstein's car was extensively damaged.

Falkenstein was arrested on a charge of driving into the path of other traffic. He was cited to appear Thursday before R. R. Benning, justice of the peace in Mt. Gilead.

Two other arrests Monday were reported by the patrol.

James Culver, 52, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., was charged with speeding on Route 95 at 2 p.m. Monday. He was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty before Justice Bennington.

Hurley Price, 53, of near Marion was cited to appear in Municipal Court after he was charged with stop sign violation at the intersection of Route 30-S and County Road 136 at 4:25 p.m.

Single Race Tops Crawford Co. Interest

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — The race for the Democratic nominations to two Crawford County Commissioner's posts occupied the spotlight in Crawford County voting

Roy Eichorn was defeated in his bid for a second term as a county commissioner while the Crawford County Sheriff Ralph Schreck and Vance Hoover, appointed a commissioner to fill the unexpired term, won the nominations.

Also occupying the spotlight of public interest was the race for Crawford County treasurer's nomination. Incumbent Mae Kloepfer was defeated by T. Clinton Kiess for the Democratic nomination.

In all there were 4,187 Democratic voters and 3,677 Republican votes cast in Crawford County, it was reported. Balloting was reported heavy.

A SUMMARY of the election follows:

The Favorites

SOMETIMES in the warm, bright dawn of the morning after the May primaries in Ohio, there is reason to wonder what sustained so many hopes with no visible means of support.

On Tuesday, the favorites won—as they nearly always do. Looking backward, which is always advantageous in politics, one wonders how some of them could have helped but win.

For example, the significant success of the Kefauver delegates in Ohio seems by hindsight to have been inevitable. Also the successful run of Mike DiSalle for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Yet, many Democrats tried to resist the inevitable.

Sen. Taft's sweep of the district and at-large delegates to the Republican convention had been universally expected. But the heavy turnout of Republican voters eager to prove that the senator's friends in his home state are not only devoted to his presidential candidacy but enthusiastically devoted to it may surprise some of the eastern belittlers.

The Taft name was good medicine at the polls in another contest where there had been doubt—unjustified doubt, by hindsight. Charles P. Taft will make the race against Frank Lausche for governor next fall and that one should be something to see. Another memorable attraction next fall should be the contest between Sen. John W. Bricker and the ebullient DiSalle.

The dawn that comes after election day in November is cold and gray. Being on the losing end of a difference of opinion is then harder to bear than it is in the merry month of May, when so many feel called on to run and so few can be chosen.

Solicitude for Gamblers

IF THE Supreme Court upholds a ruling by the U.S. District Court in Philadelphia that a stamp fee collected from bookmakers and numbers operators is unconstitutional, a couple of thousand officials in local governments are going to feel like going fishing.

They are not going to be able to understand the reasoning of Judge George A. Welsh, who wrote the ruling. Judge Welsh concludes that it is discriminatory against gamblers to require them to make available certain information about themselves and their employes while qualifying for a $50 gambling stamp.

He further reasons that this is improper use of the taxing power, because it gets into the field of morals. The fact here is, of course, that the federal government is willing to issue the stamps to anyone who applied. It is not until local enforcement officials use the stamp lists to find out who the registered gamblers are that morals get into the picture.

In all cases of legitimate business, the same type of information always is available. But when gamblers are brought into the light, where they can be counted and held accountable, tender solicitude comes to their rescue.

The stamp fee collected from bookmakers and numbers operator has put a crimp into one of the lushest of the money sources for organized vice. It would be a great pity if legalism should put a crimp in the crimp.

The Panmunjom Way

A CLOUD of crisis still hovers over Panmunjom, because it is impossible for Americans to believe that negotiations can be deadlocked forever.

But Americans could be wrong about that. When Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of U.N. ground forces in Korea, says firmly that his forces can outfight or outsit the Communists he is talking about a reality, not a dream.

The negotiations at Panmunjom have been a symbol for many months of a standoff between the west and the Communist conspiracy in the Orient. In fact, the conspiracy has brought about in Asia what the west hopes to bring about in Europe—a stalemate.

Neither side can lose. Neither side can win. It is a balance of power maintained by infinite patience in diplomacy on the one hand, infinite vigilance in militarism on the other hand.

The question for the West—and particularly for Americans—has become whether or not the tactics of the Communist conspiracy can be withstood; whether or not the west finally will run out of patience.

Royalties on French Fries

CONGRESS is burned up over taxation by which the French treasury clips the United States for $1 out of every $5 spent on American military bases in France.

The aggrieved American taxpayer now has a fresh grievance.

The French have been putting a port fee of $2 on every enlisted man and $6 on every officer who lands in France—for the purpose of saving French skins. And a disgruntled GI cannot understand why they put a premium on officers!

What further gimmicks they may trot out to soak uncle sugar is anybody's guess. But retaliation is possible, n'est ce pas? The United States could tax French fries and French toast.

Washington's Ailment

By David Lawrence

Caused by the Doctrine of Machiavelli

WASHINGTON

THE DOCTRINE of Machiavelli—that the end justifies the means even if the means are improper—has been embraced by the men in temporary control of the United States government. That's what the real trouble is in Washington today.

Like a cancer it eats into the morals and the law. It governs the executive. It sometimes penetrates the judiciary. It accounts for the supineness of Congress.

How can an example of respect for law and the Constitution be set for all citizens when a gigantic labor union deliberately orders its men off the job as a means of coercing both the courts of the United States and the executive? Why should there be astonishment at mink-coat bribery and tax-fixing when the party in power yields to the threat of pressure groups and, because of their alleged power at the polls, gives them special privileges? Small wonder now that the nation is faced with a crisis in oil as well as in the steel industry.

Judge Pine pronounced last week the law of the land—that the executive could not without sanction of Congress seize the steel mills. No formal writ ordering the return of the steel properties to their owners had been issued by the court when the CIO union nevertheless ordered its men to strike. The plants were still in government hands. Despite the protestations for weeks by President Truman — concurred in piously by labor union leaders—that steel was vital to production for national defense, the mills were closed down and hundreds of thousands of tons of steel production lost to the defense effort. Then the President had to plead publicly and beg the head of the CIO to order the men back to work.

BUT WORSE THAN this, five judges of the Circuit Court of Appeals succumbed to the same psychology—that the union must be cajoled into returning to work and that the great judicial power of the United States could not be invoked to preserve the status quo—to keep the mills operating and the government from imposing wage increases while the orderly process of appeal to the Supreme Court was being followed.

The blunder of the five justices of the Circuit Court of Appeals will rank in the history of American jurisprudence as a terrible example of an abject surrender to expediency—that the end justifies the means.

Four justices of the Circuit Court of Appeals were ready to grant an order to maintain the status quo during the critical situation—a legal principle well established in law and order. But they were outvoted. It makes a tragic record.

Even as the solicitor general was telling the circuit court of appeals frankly that the government could not promise to maintain the status quo, the Circuit Court's majority in effect, surrendered to the exigencies and to the cry that this was the only way to get steel production resumed, merely by placating the CIO union.

THEN THE PRESIDENT stepped in to reward the CIO for its aggression by promising in behalf of the government an immediate wage increase. Thereupon, the Supreme Court told the President you could not do this. By unanimous vote the Supreme Court reversed the Circuit Court of Appeals and ordered the status quo to be maintained—that is, no wage increase and no return of the mills while the Supreme Court calmly reviews the basic questions of law. This is in keeping with judicial tradition.

The Supreme Court thus warns that it will not be coerced by any party to the dispute or by the executive into deciding a case under duress. It also means that the solution of the problem is now really up to Congress—to pass proper laws providing a means of settling labor disputes in major industries in a national emergency. It is not up to the Executive to try to write such laws. Congress has the constitutional power to sanction the temporary seizure of plants and to prescribe methods and conditions of employment during government operation.

The net effect now is to maintain the mills in government hands while somebody behind the scenes in the administration works up a deal to satisfy labor. It will not be a deal that satisfies the owners of the properties because the present administration believes in virtual confiscation of the profits that must be earned to retain investor confidence. But the labor dispute is back to collective bargaining between the parties, where it belongs.

THE STEEL STRIKE could have been settled weeks ago. President Truman could have settled it on March 28 last had he not welched on his instructions to Charles E. Wilson, former director of economic mobilization, who had a compromise plan that Mr. Truman approved but which was upset by the insubordinaton of some of the President's own appointees. The same President who fired General MacArthur in a mood of petty peevishness couldn't summon up enough courage to dismiss the petty obstructionists in his own entourage, or to swallow his pride when he found himself rebuked by a court of law.

But the issues are becoming plain for the American people to see—executive bungling, and disregard of the Constitution. The situation calls for a return to constitutional rule by Congress through whom the people speak—and an abandonment of the doctrine of expediency. Unless the government steers by the compass of fundamental principle and morality, the way is opened to the disintegration of American institutions.

Jones Still Leading

By TRUMAN TWILL

THE LONGER an ordinary scrounger, say in the newspaper business, thinks about the government weight which has been flung around in behalf of people, who work for the steel industry, the more ordinary he feels.

It has been made crystal-clear from the outset that the purpose of this activity was to make it possible for the steel employes "to catch up." It has been left conveniently vague about whom they were catching up with—perhaps the Joneses. But there was no doubt about their claim on government intervention.

Here is a fascinating thought for all the millions of Americans who must do their own catching up and keeping up with no boards or commissions, assembled in solemn conclave in Washington to take charge of the project.

Much depends, obviously, on what kind of a pace is set in a catch-up race. One of the most sensational things which ever happened in the United States was the announcement of a policy by Henry Ford nearly a generation ago that his company intended to pay factory workers $5 a day. That was a pace!

It set in motion the most furious catch-up race in American economic history. It was the beginning of the era of mass production and mass consumption. Ford's discovery that automobiles could be manufactured on a stereotype, principle by the tens of thousands and sold for a fraction of what it cost to make them one at a time was a historic event.

Savings were passed on to the customers, many of whom were Ford's own $5-a-day employes. As his business picked up, everybody else had to pay $5 a day to keep employes from going to Ford, who needed them. All that happened a long time ago. No one in Washington ever told Henry Ford he had to pay $5 a day; it was his idea.

WHAT HAPPENS after government starts to decide who should catch up, when the catching up begins to be downhill? Or is it going to be always uphill?

And who determines whose catching-up is the responsibility of the government and who should be left to shift for himself in these matters?

Will war veterans, pensioners, widows, public employes and all the other millions who have been losing out instead of catching up eventually have their cases carried up to the U. S. Supreme Court?

Who is going to do the front-running so all the rear-runners whose God-given right of pursuit has become the main worry of a couple bureaus full of catch-up experts will have someone to catch up to? And, to repeat, when the race begins to be run the other way will the experts then reverse their field and demand that those who are ahead reverse their fields too and chase the ones bringing up the rear?

There are enough angles in this catch-up theory of economic equity to cross up everybody when you stop to think about it. Who's chasing whom?

Avoiding the No-Strike Law

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

THE QUESTION that goes far beyond the present steel dispute and faces both organized labor and business is this:

Will the government ever again permit a strike in a critical industry, whether in time of emergency or war or peace, when a prolonged walkout might wreck the economy?

Big labor unions and big business traditionally have protested publicly against government interference. Neither side has fully practiced what it preached.

Organized labor welcomed and wanted to keep the Wagner Act which restricted employers. Business welcomed and wants to keep the Taft-Hartley Act which restricts both sides.

With each act the government stepped deeper into union-management relations. The net result was less of the free collective bargaining both sides say they want.

Their attitude toward these labor acts has been like that of those special groups which seek and accept government subsidies but complain about free enterprise when the government then moves in on their affairs.

THE HISTORY of the past decade has been a record of the government's trying to halt, or actually halting in one way or another, strikes in vital industries.

In fact, the trend has been under way ever since the middle 1920s when Congress passed the Railway Labor Act. It didn't outlaw a rail strike. It just erected long-drawn-out machinery to delay it.

This trend reached a near-climax with the Taft-Hartley Act which lets the government get a court injunction forbidding a strike for 80 days, although permitting one later.

The trend reached a peak in the present steel dispute when President Truman seizel the steel industry and threatened to raise wages until the Supreme Court blocked him.

Congress, when it passed the Taft-Hartley Act, stopped just short of adding legislation which would let the government forbid any strike at all in critical circumstances.

And although Truman twice in this steel dispute has asked Congress for some solution, he hasn't suggested a no-strike law. It's an answer no one seems to like to think of.

AND SO FAR the nation has been able to squirm through its many strike crises of recent years in one way or another without benefit of a no-strike law.

Still, government intrusion to prevent a strike has taken various forms, some of them just as effective as a no-strike law while preserving the illusion of final freedom to strike:

Mediation, fact-finding boards that are supposed to carry with them the weight of public opinion, court injunctions, government seizure (as in this steel dispute) which makes both sides government employes, and even a request from President Truman in 1945, asking Congress for power to draft striking railroad employes.

As time passes and American society becomes more complex and interdependent, the more unthinkable is a big strike which, if prolonged, might wreck the country.

For instance: How long would Congress sit on its hands if the railroads and truck lines, which supply the nation's food and necessities, were on a prolonged strike or even threatened to strike simultaneously?

Yet, if Congress passes a law which deprives labor unions of their only weapon, the strike. Labor in turn will pressure for some equal penalty on employers.

That penalty in time probably would be compulsory arbitration, the very thought of which fills both sides with fury.

Democratic Republians

By George E. Sokolsky

TWO THEORIES appear concerning the widespread participation of Democrats in the Republican primaries:

1. That the Republicans cannot elect a President without the aid of Democrats or "independent" voters. Therefore, the activity of Democrats, wherever lawful, in Republican primaries foretells the election of the Republican candidate who can attract to himself Democratic voters;

2. That the Democrats have devised a means for nullifying the Republican primaries, so that the Republican candidate is chosen not by his partisans but by those who seek his defeat on election day.

Theory No. 1 represents the Eisenhower position; theory No. 2, the Taft position.

Across both runs the disclosure of Sam Rosenmann that Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie were developing plans for a coalition party under their apparent joint leadership. It could only be apparent, not real, because as Roosevelt was actually in the White House, he would be the top man in such an arrangement and the Willkie Republicans would necessarily have been absorbed by the Roosevelt New Dealers. It was a plan for the obliteration of the Republican Party.

AGAIN, IT MUST be born in mind that the original Eisenhower supporters planned for him to be nominated by both the Democratic and Republican parties. General Eisenhower is reported to have told General MacArthur in Tokyo that he expected to be nominated by both parties. At that time, the principal manager of General Eisenhower's boom was George Allen, Democrat and associate of Harry Truman. The plan seems to have been a continuation of the Roosevelt-Willkie scheme for the capture of the Republican Party by the Democrats by infiltration and absorption.

Further, in the development of this plan is the enervating slogan: "Taft is the best man, but he cannot win." As the Republicans have not won an election since 1932, this slogan, widespread and continuous in its use, has frightened many Republicans who would prefer to win under any circumstances. The slogan has encouraged many Republicans to believe or hope that if they had a candidate for whom Democrats would vote, they could win at long last. Even if the Presidential candidate were not quite a partisan, the Senate and Houe would become Republican as the result of a landslide.

THE DIRECTION of these movements is toward a one-party system such as Mussolini developed in Italy, Hitler in Germany, and such as now exists in each of the Soviet countries. There is nothing sacrosanct about the two-party system, except that it actually serves the people bet-

Dr. Frank L. Boyden
Headmaster, Deerfield Academy

DEAR DOC,

Everybody is thinking about the steel seizure, the court decisions, Harry Truman, the constitution and the future of America but I am just thinking about you and a horse. How are you doing? They both take me back to a less befuddled, cockeyed and chaotic way of life. The other day a lot of folks who wanted to honor you for your fifty years in education at Deerfield, in looking around for a nice gift, came up with a horse and buggy which they presented to you at the Waldorf-Astoria. I have been thinking of it ever since . . . no diamond, no watch, no fat purse, no dream house, no trip to Sun Valley all expenses paid . . . not even your house painted inside and out . . . just a HORSE AND BUGGY! In my book, doctor, it's the Gift of the Decade, one of the few grand prizes that make sense.

Up in that little Massachusetts town you like to drive around in something close to the surrey with the fringe on top. You are one of the few Americans left who has the impulse and courage to do it. Your secret ambition has always been to run a livery stable. You are a man after my own heart, doc. A feller who has never driven a horse and buggy, known the thrill of hitching up Dobbin and felt the thrill of driving down Main Street in a rig with red wheels, has missed something. I knew those satisfactions back when going out for a ride didn't call for bad breeding, terrible manners, tall profanity and a disrespect for everybody else on the road. How's the horse behaving? An animal that's been a Waldorf Astoria guest may be a little uppity. (Wine with his oats and all that sort of thing.) He knows there ain't another skinner in Massachusetts that's stopped at that hotel.

Overlook it, doc, if he is balky coming out of the barn. He's just waiting for the elevator. And he may think there was a "DO NOT DISTURB" sign on the stall. You will have to be patient. What have you named him? Not "Breakfast In Bed," "Epicurist," "Royal Suite," or "Prince" I hope. Just give him some plain name like "Dan" or "Pete." As a kid I drove one called "Bummy" and he could beat "Sky King," "Gleaming Gold," "Lightning Duke," "Ace of Diamonds" and other skinners with hifalutin monickers like that.

Here's to you and the horse and buggy, anyhow, doc! When it comes to gifts you've got the most sensible friends on earth.

Sincerely,

ELMER.

P.S.—If you ever realize your wish and own a livery stable I'll be seeing you, doc. There's so much snarling, snapping, name calling and general disorder around these days that a livery stable may turn out to be the ideal place for the ultimate gathering.

A FELLOW IN New Jersey turned down a bequest giving him the income from a $300,000 estate last week. . . . There's a smart fellow. . . . He knows the trouble money can get a man into today. . . . On a small salary he gets along fairly well, barring trouble with the groceries, but once he got into the $300,000 trust fund class, he wouldn't know a day's peace. . . .

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO—It was Thursday, May 7, 1942.

Terms of surrender were being drawn up after France's Diego Suarez Bay fortifications, the best naval base of Madagascar, had fallen to British forces.

Marion Star newspaper carriers in the period from Jan. 9 to April 25 sold stamps and bonds amounting to $35,121.74.

Matinee and evening audiences estimated at 2,000 persons attending performances of "Inside the Lines," Harding High School senior class play, at the Palace Theater.

Misses May Ella and Emma O'Brien entertained with several tables of bridge as a prenuptial courtesy to Miss Mary Jane Ray, a bride-elect of Saturday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—It was Saturday, May 7, 1932.

Barking of a pet dog was credited for the rescue of Mrs. Lester McIntire of north of Marion when she fell through the top of a cistern at her farm home. The dog's barking attracted the attention of Mrs. McIntire's husband, who helped her from the cistern.

Two sets of twins were announced among the members of the Harding High School graduating class. They were Bethel and Ethel Hurst, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hurst of N Grand Ave., and Allan and Charles Justice, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Justice of Merchant Ave.

Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Dutt, 74, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Douce of Vine St.

Fire struck three times at the home of J. L. Sparks, five miles north of Green Camp, in a period of 11 hours, reducing it to ashes. Neighbors fought the flames after the Green Camp fire department became stuck in the mud on the road leading to the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hollandshead entertained the Criterion Club at their home on E. Center St.

John E. Gracely of E. Church St. entertained friends at a birthday party.

Nagel Heads MPS Foremen

Elected at Annual Dinner Meeting

Willard Nagel of the Marion Power Shovel inspection department, was elected president of the company's Foremen's Club at the annual dinner-meeting Saturday night in the Hotel Harding ballroom.

He will succeed Clifford Midlam as president: Other officers elected are: vice president, Carlton Wells, of the engineering department; recording secretary, Melvin Upton of the machine shop; treasurer, Glenn Dunkin of the payroll and tabulating department; members-at-large of the executive committee, Francis B. Jennings, assistant sales manager, Dan Matthews, Dept. 95B and, Charles E. Williams, Dept. 62.

Dinner-music was furnished by the Dick Myers Ensemble, with Mary Helen Buckingham, daughter of Roy Buckingham, Marion Power Shovel Co. employe, as featured soloist.

Dr. Carroll Ritchey, Marion optometrist and amateur magician, entertained with a program of magic acts.

Some time was given to the discussion of plans for the annual summer trip of the club members. Club officers will be guided in selection of the city to be visited by a ballot by all members of the club. Cincinnati, Chicago, Cleveland and Pittsburgh are now under consideration for a weekend trip in August.

A major league baseball game will be available in whatever trip selection the foremen decide upon.

John P. Courtright, Marion Power Shovel Co. president and general manager, attended the meeting and participated in the discussion of plans for the MPS foremen's summer trip.

Marion Garden Center Notes

DELPHINIUMS

Delphiniums, also called perennial Larkspur, should always be planted in full sun They may bloom in something less, but will be lanky and barely approach the performance of which they are capable in a sunny exposure Their soil must be perfectly drained in both summer and winter, they will thrive in a heavy clay or sandy loam to which ample organic matter in the form of compost leafmold, or rotted manure has been added Delphiniums are usually listed among plants which need an alkaline soil Actually they seem to grow equally well in slightly acid, neutral or slightly alkaline soils They are propagated in this country by seed While they may be sown at practically any season, the highest percentage of germination seems to come from fresh seed sown as quickly as possible after it has been harvested Cover the seeds with about ¼ inch of soil and keep shaded Never let the seed bed dry out If the seeds are started early in May they will produce a moderate amount of bloom by fall. Trouble will come if the plants are set too deeply, whether seedlings or mature clumps, have a definite crown the top of which should never be covered with soil but should be just above the soil surface Once the spikes have bloomed cut off only the fading flower blooms Later when the foliage has died down the new growth has come from the crown, the entire stalk can be removed

Mid-Season Styles Displayed in Paris Fashion Show

PARIS (AP) — Fully flared skirts that swirl up on the turns to show a pretty leg spiced the Jean Desses mid-season dress show Monday

Fan tails and fronts, corset bodices, question mark hats and stole tricks were other Desses contributions to the summer style scene. But New York saw most of his show piece formals before Paris did They were shown in the April in Paris ball at the Waldorf Astoria last month

The designer makes reversible stoles (long scarves) with contrasting linings, pleated stoles, shirred stoles and evening stoles which form a bra across the bodice top before falling in a fan-tailed effect behind A red bra-stole tops a white strapless chiffon formal, and another red stole makes a bra fill-in on a dangerously low black velvet bodice, worn with an immense white net skirt

Desses' newest bolero is cut away in front to bare the bosom, and flared behind like a cape Some have long sleeves with gloves attached

Chiffon evening dresses, many ankle length are evening favorites They often mix two or even three colors The same horizontally pleated corset bodices that dress up daytime fashions reappear on strapless formals

The princess line is definitely the leading silhouette as far as Desses (and several other Paris designers) are concerned

Seven Years Later

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

SEVEN YEARS AGO this week the guns ceased fire in Europe, and a way of life they never wanted ended for millions of Americans.

It was the way of war.

The news had been expected along the front for days, the link-up the American and Russian forces along the Elbe River had made a German surrender only a formality.

But when word of the final surrender did come it raced through the battle lines like a surf of joy.

Yet in the hour of victory there was a strange lack of wild elation among the combat troops. They had fought too long and too hard for this moment, and they were overtired.

And in most soldiers' hearts there was this worry:

"Hitler is down, but Hirohito is still to go. Will I have to go to Japan now?"

It is no criticism of the courage of these troops to say that most of them had no enthusiasm for a long journey to the Far East and more fighting there. They felt that Europe had been their war and they had won it. They had lost many friends along the march from Normandy to the Elbe. All they wanted was to go back home and pick up the life they had left behind—to be again as they had been before.

It was this feeling—the doubt as to whether they would be ticketed to the U.S.A. or Japan—that accounted for the little general jubilation over the end of the European war.

SOME SOLDIERS wiped their eyes at the news. Some fired their carbines into the air—and immediately got bawled out for wasting ammo. Some went absent without leave. Some dug out hidden bottles of French brandy and got roaring tight. Some went off and sat by themselves and thought of buddies who hadn't made it all the way.

But most of the men just gathered in small groups and talked it over—and there really wasn't too much to say.

I remember that night . . . the sweetness of search slept on in safety . . . tracer bullets lofting lightly up through the darkness as someone growled "There's another trigger happy fool celebrating" . . . cigaret butts glowing and dying like fireflies in the lips of men stretched flat on their backs and staring up at the sky and thinking long, long thoughts of those away.

Already this mighty army, its task done, was beginning to disintegrate. The men no longer were thinking of the common goal ahead—a river to be crossed, a ridge mass to be stormed and taken. They were being pulled apart by the tugs of peace, the possibility of going back to their own private lives.

ONCE ITS GOAL IS GONE, an army is gone. The breakup of the vast American fighting machine began that night of victory seven years ago in Europe.

The army came home, disbanded, and built more homes and families and had more children than any army in history.

"What did you do in the last war, daddy?" asks a small son of one of these combat veterans.

And today—seven years later—daddy looks at the puzzling picture in Europe, scratches his head and wonders himself.

"Well, I whipped Hitler," he finally ventures.

"Who's Hitler?" demands his small son.

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

"I not only can promise that, but I will," Lillian said hoarsely. "Nobody, not even Marion, shall dream that I know anything about Harry."

She loosened her hands from my clasp, flung her arms around me, and hugged me so tightly that I feared for my ribs. Then she released me, and gently put me back into my chair, seating herself opposite me, and leaning forward with her avid eyes fixed on mine.

"When—when can you begin?" she asked.

"This second," I said, and then swiftly related the news Dicky had given me of Terry McGovern's terrible auto accident which would keep him in a hospital for many weeks, first assuring her that Harry was perfectly well.

"Harry is in no danger now," I said, hoping devoutly that Dicky's hint about possible accomplices of Terry's being in the offing would not become a fact. But Lillian was too experienced in my father's work not to have seen that possibility.

"What about accomplices?" she asked.

"I asked that," I fibbed, "and Dicky says Father thinks Terence is playing a lone hand, except for paying large sums for information from local sources."

"The Chief is sure of that?" she asked, and I lied in my teeth again, thankful that I could tack a bit of truth on the end.

"Dicky thinks he is," I said. "I haven't talked to my father about it."

"I'll trust the Dicky-bird's judgment," she said. "Did—did your father say when Harry could come over here?"

"No, he didn't," I told her, "but I imagine not for a day or two. You see, this accident just happened yesterday, I believe, and Father wants Harry to stick closely to the hospital until they know how things are going. But Dicky said Harry was wild to see you, and that he was sure Father would let him come over here the first minute possible."

She closed her eyes, and leaned back in her chair.

"Dear God! she murmured reverently, "I thank Thee!" Then she opened her eyes and smiled at me, with her face illumined with happiness.

"I don't know how I'm ever going to thank you," she said, her eyes shining with heady gratitude. "I know what it must mean to you to tell me all this without your father's knowledge, or sanction. But I think you've saved my sanity, if not my life. I just could not have taken it much longer without hearing from Harry. However, I'm afraid the lash will descend upon your cringing back if this ever gets out."

"I'll make you come and rub my gashes with salt, ala old Uncle Tom," I told her, then laughed aloud at an almost forgotten remembrance.

"Spill the recollection," she urged me. "I could use a grin."

"Junior and Roderick were about eight," I said, "and they were extra naughty, as I remember it. At any rate, I gave each of them a switching—using small apple switches around their legs, and distinctly not raising welts. But, of course, the marks of the switches showed, and Katie came to me, fairly shaking with laughter. Both boys had read Uncle Tom's Cabin, and after getting a jar of salt from Katie, they went out into the yard, and rubbed each other's stripes with salt, evidently imagining that they were stanching blood along their welts."

When Lillian put back her head and laughed heartily for the first time in weeks, I felt justified in my tactit disobedience of my father. Her joyful mood continued through our luncheon, and she greeted Dicky gaily when he came down promptly at two-fifteen.

"It's good you're on time," she said. "Your spouse has been ready for a quarter of an hour. I pity that credit man at Wheeler's when she gets there."

Wives Should Know As Much About Insurance as Husbands Do

We're always pleased when both husband and wife take advantage of our invitation to talk over insurance problems. We're firm believers in the idea that wives should know as much about the family's insurance program as the husbands do. If you aren't positive you have sufficient auto, fire and burglary insurance, we'd like to discuss this important topic with you—no obligation will follow.

There's a freight train in your life!

YES, every day of your life! For see what happens when an Erie freight train cuts off cars for delivery of goods to the homes, stores and industries in your town.

There's a car with cement for a local builder. There's another containing hardware and lumber—raw material for building homes! There are cars of food—meat from Chicago, citrus fruits from California, and flour for good, fresh bread to feed your town.

Coal cars are switched to a siding for unloading by your local coal dealer to keep your homes warm and comfortable, and your industries running..

Box cars of raw materials for the factory down the street help the manufacturer produce the goods that keep your town busy and prosperous.

All this and more comes in by train—the safe, dependable way of transporting everything that we need to keep living well. And remember, too, the railroads are a self-supporting industry that pays taxes and helps to share the load in local community welfare.

That's the way we on the Erie serve you and your community—a job we take on 24 hours a day, every day in the year!

Program Set For Navy Band Concert

Afternoon, Night Shows Scheduled At Palace Theater

The programs to be presented by The United States Navy Band when it appears here in three concerts Thursday have been arranged to appeal to everyone, with compositions ranging from marches to classical selections to the modern popular pieces.

Afternoon concerts have been scheduled for 1:30 and also 3 o'clock, while the evening program is set to begin at 8.

The Navy Band of 55 pieces, under the direction of Lt. Comdr. Charles Brendler, U. S. N., will open all concerts with a herald trumpet fanfare and the Star Spangled Banner and close with the playing of "Anchors Aweigh."

Matinee Programs

For the matinee programs, the band has arranged the following program: "Il Guarany Overture," Carlos Gomez; "Shawl Dance," Frank Skinner; "The Chase," Leo Stanley, featuring an English post horn solo with Frank Scimonelli as soloist; "Blue Tango," Leroy Anderson; "Running Off The Rails," Clive Richardson; "Czardas," Victor Monti, featuring an accordion solo with John Felice as soloist; "Bacchanale" from "Samson and Delilah," Camille Saint-Saens; "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," Jessel-Gould; "Fantasie Impromptu," Frederic Chopin, featuring a clarinet solo with Anthony Mitchell as soloist; "Cinderella Fantasy," Eric Coates; and "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

During the first half of the evening concert, the band will play "Colas Breugnon Overture," Cmitri Kabalevsky; "On The Trail," Ferde Grofe; "Romeo and Juliet Fantasie," Peter Tschaikowsky; either "The Windjammers," Gordon Finlay, featuring a cornet trio with Gordon Finlay, Frank Scimonelli and Harold Wendt as soloists, or "Air Varie," Arthur Pryor, featuring a trombone solo with Homer Phillips as soloist; "South Pacific Selection," Richard Rodgers; and "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Second Part

Following intermission, the band will be heard in "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 1," Franz Liszt; "Syncopated Clock," Leroy Anderson; "Chicken Reel"; "O' Paridiso" from the opera, "L'Africana," Giacomo Meyerbeer; "Domino," Raye-Ferrari, with Ben Mitchel Morris as soloist; "Graduation Ball," Johann Strauss, music for the ballet, including "Entrance of the Cadets," "Perpetual Motion," "Fouettes," "Acceleration Waltz," and "Grand Galop."

Tickets are on sale at the theater box office, various downtown business establishments and by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the sponsoring organization. The prices: for students, 65 cents afternoon and $1.25 evenings, and for adults, $1.25 afternoon and $1.85 evening.

West Town Street Dance Set May 13

The West Town Merchants haven't forgotten about the street dance they had to call off because of rain after the West Town Jubilee last October.

They have completed plans to hold the street dance Tuesday from 8 to 11 p.m., with the music of the Chuck Wagon Pals. Dacing will include square and round numbers.

Couples will dance in an enclosed area on W. Center St. between Olney Ave. and Park Blvd. Free tickets are available at all West Town Merchants establishments.

Dominic Sansotta is president of the West Town Merchants Businessmen's Association, which is presenting the dance. Vern Parish is in charge of arrangements.

In case of rain, the dance will be held Wednesday night, May 14.

The dance is being held as part of the West Town Merchants Jubilee, last Oct. 21 and 22. Some 15,000 attended the event on the two nights. This year's jubilee, tentatively scheduled for July, will again include a talent show, professional entertainment and prizes.

Indian College Choir To Sing Here Thursday

Presented in Marion Thursday night will be a concert by singers from the only American Indian college in existence, Bacone College located at Muskogee, Okla. The group will appear at Trinity Baptist Church, coming here from Detroit, Mich. This chorus has representatives from 26 tribes and 12 states, and touring with the singers is the Ittanaha Indian Club to demonstrate cultural ceremonies as a dramatic addition to the program. Raymond Evans is the chorus director, a graduate of Westminster School of Music in New Jersey.

PLANS WHISTLE STOPS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman, approaching his 68th birthday, today contemplated a future of whistle stop campaigning against those he accused of playing right down Stalin's alley. His targets, he says, will be the appropriations-cutters and lobbyists who have fought him since he first laid down his 21-point program of foreign and domestic legislation in September of 1945.

gether on the same speaking platform.

Walcutt called Taft a "New Dealer" and urged nomination of a "real Republican." Walcutt based his claim largely on Charles Taft's Washington war time jobs during the New Deal administration and his membership in Cincinnati's "charterite" faction. The city government charterites included Democrats and independent Republicans.

Charles Taft countered by saying he campaigned for all Republican presidential candidates from 1928 through 1946, except in 1944 when he held a State Department job and was banned by the Hatch Act from taking part. He said he campaigned against both President Roosevelt and President Truman.

Taft slowly widened his margin over Herbert and led in his home county of Hamilton despite a GOP endorsement of Walcutt there.

He also led in Cuyahoga County where the GOP organization endorsed him amid cries of "bossism" from Herbert. The gubernatorial totals included 400 polling places in Cuyahoga County.

A complicated ballot slowed the count over the state even where voting machines were used.

Democrats had only the senatorial contest on their ballots in the state aside from the presidential delegate event. But Republicans had three races in addition to the gubernatorial battle.

Milligan Runs Second

Mayor John W. Brown of Medina pulled to the front of a three-way sprint for nomination for lieutenant governor.

Returns from 4,726 polling places gave: Brown 115,750; Fred J. Milligan of Columbus 95,843 and George V. Woodling of Cleveland 58,813.

Milligan, former state commerce director, claimed more county endorsements than any Republican candidate. But Brown cruised ahead on a record of enforcing highway truck limitations in his northern Ohio city. Woodling unsuccessfully sought the nomination for governor two years ago.

Lt. Gov. George D. Nye of Waverly, a Democrat, is unopposed for renomination.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown of Columbus nearly doubled the score on Edward J. Hummel of Cincinnati, who formerly held that office. Both are Republicans.

Returns from 4,679 polling places gave Brown 177,236; Hummel 95,517.

caused a Dixie revolt in the 1948 Democratic convention.

Both men declared their opposition to a compulsory FEPC offered by President Truman as a way to curb job discrimination because of race, color or creed. Kefauver said he would accept such a plank in the Democratic platform while Russell said he was unalterably opposed to what he called a "compulsory jail-sentence FEPC."

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Paulina Longworth Sturm, 26, granddaughter of President Theodore Roosevelt, was found unconscious Tuesday in her East Side hotel apartment.

Oil Workers To Air Case Before WSB

DENVER (AP) — The coordinating committee of the 22 oil unions on strike in the oil industry has agreed to attend a meeting before the Wage Stabilization Board May 13.

WSB Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger in Washington, D. C., Tuesday asked for an end to the strike and renewal of bargaining. The meeting next Tuesday will be to give the WSB a full background on the controversy.

This opened the way for speculation that the WSB, which never handles a case when a strike is in progress, will turn the oil dispute back to President Truman, who will be faced with the problem of whether to invoke the Taft-Hartley law.

It is possible bargaining for settlement with the aid of federal mediation and conciliation service would be renewed.

Several recently negotiated contracts might be considered a pattern for nationwide settlement.

CONFESSES BANK ROBBERY PUBLICLY. This is the dramatic scene in Seward Avenue Baptist Church, Topeka, Kan., as Albert Johnson, 23-year-old father, publicly confesses his part in the $835 holdup of the Hoyt, Kan., State bank in 1948. Seated is Al Conn, Kansas City, director of the Sunday school radio program, who put the confession on the air. Johnson is free on $5,000 bond. Hearing is scheduled May 12. Kansas' statute of limitations, which requires criminal prosecution to start within two years of the crime, may save him. Johnson confessed to "warn the young to avoid the fate that befell me," he said.

KEY SUSPECT IN SCHUSTER SLAYING CAPTURED. Handcuffed to two other men rounded up by Providence, R. I. police is Harvey Bistany (right, foreground), described by the authorities as a key suspect in the Brooklyn slaying of Arnold Schuster, who put the finger on Willie Sutton. At left is Dennis Lytwyn and, in center, Manuel Orfao, purportedly a onetime member of the Detroit Purple Gang. All three were armed. Bistany, sought for a Brooklyn post office robbery and a number of stickups, is said to have been with Sutton, his ex-convict pal, two days before young Schuster was slain. Standing in rear are police officers who staged the raid.

Pair Who Fled Lima Hospital Still At-Large

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police worked with meager clues today in their search for two inmates who escaped from the Lima State Hospital for the criminal insane.

Several scraps of paper left in the first of two cars used by the pair in making their getaway were examined by police experts. Both men were described as dangerous and unpredictable.

The two, Neville Slusher, 24, and Floyd Keith, 23, both of Cincinnati, broke out of the hospital Monday night after overpowering two guards with an ice pick and a knife.

Deputy Police Inspector James E. McArthur said the pieces of paper appeared to be the remnants of a letter and might show why the pair headed toward Cleveland.

"They might have a friend here who had written to them," he added.

Police of three suburban communities joined Cleveland authorities in combing the Strongsville-Berea-Middleburg Heights area.

The two forced one of the guards they overpowered, Wilbur Hardin, 54, to accompany them in his car. When the car broke down near Middlepoint, they tied up Hardin and seized a car owned by Ralph Warnecke, 27, who had stopped to offer assistance.

Attends Meeting Of Fair Managers

Clifford Campbell of near Marion attended the Western Ohio Fair Managers Association meeting in Springfield, O., recently. Talks were given by Clark County and Springfield officials on the method of operation of the fairgrounds there, reported to be one of the best county fairgrounds in the state.

Approximately 350 persons attended the banquet and program. Campbell was accompanied by his wife.

Horse Association Honors Man From Springfield

Members of the Ohio Western Horse Association held a dinner Sunday at Harding Hotel in honor of G. John Morean of Springfield. Morean is an executive of the Crowell Collier Publishing Co. and has been active in horse association activities.

Following the ceremony in which Morean was honored, a business meeting was held. The date for the Horse Association's fall roundup was set for Oct. 18 and 19 at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The roundup will include championship and open classes.

Directors of the Ohio Western Horse Association attending the dinner and meeting included the following: Delbert Shaffer of Columbus, J. C. Fausey of Fremont, Guy Radcliff of Wellington, Earl Dickinson of Greenwich, Larry Hall of Marion, Earl Lambert of Columbus, and Floyd Barber of Chagrin Falls.

Clifford Campbell of near Marion is the president of the association and his wife is secretary. Louie Wickersham of near Marion is vice president of the group.

Policeman Fills In As Baby Sitter

COEBURN, Va. (UP)—A policeman must be able to do almost everything—even baby-sitting.

Mayor J. E. Brooks called City Attorney L. M. Mullens to prosecute a case in court.

"I'll be there as soon as I can find a baby-sitter for my eight-month-old twins," Mullens said.

The problem was solved when the mayor sent Patrolman Claude Brummittt, who has four children, to baby-sit.

"CRY" and "COME ONA MY HOUSE." This cozy scene in New York's Copacabana presents what Broadwaylites say may be a new romance—Johnny Ray, the "Cry" crooner, and Rosemary Clooney, who got famous inviting people to "Come Ona My House."

Secret Talks Off; Korean Crisis Grows

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The end of secret talks at Panmunjon cast doubt today over the whole future of negotiations for a truce in Korea.

A complete collapse of negotiations and a resumption of full-scale fighting could follow the latest crucial developements, but authorities here did not foresee that as an inevitable result.

There was considerable speculation that some contact between the negotiators might be maintained, or that a stalemate in the fighting might continue indefinitely even without active efforts to reach an armistice.

The Communists seemed willing enough to continue negotiations, refusing a recess and proposing another full-dress, open meeting. The Allies have agreed.

The governments forming the United Nations coalition for the conduct of the fight against Communist aggression in Korea have for several weeks foreseen the possibility of a breakdown. They are reported to be fully prepared to meet with a united front whatever situation now develops.

Sales Record

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The super-salesman who sells iceboxes to eskimos is not just a myth. H. A. Faroe, proprietor of the Northern Supply Co., recently sold six 11-cubic-foot food freezers here where temperatures drop to 60 degrees below zero. The freezers are in demand for storage of moose meat.

"SO UPSET BY 'CHANGE OF LIFE' I SCREAMED AT MY HUSBAND!"

Model Photo

writes Mrs. A. Whittington of New York, N. Y.:

"Now I don't suffer from 'hot flashes' and nervousness, thanks!"

• Are you going through "change of life" . . . suffering the "hot flashes," nervous tension, irritability, weakness and other types of functionally-caused distress of this difficult time?

What Doctors' Tests Showed!

Then . . . here's hope for you! In tests by doctors, Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets gave relief from such distress . . . in 63% and 80% (respectively) of the cases tested. Complete or striking relief!

Surely you know that Lydia Pinkham's is scientifically modern in action! You know what it has done for others!

But do you know what it will do for you? Not if you haven't experienced the relief of tension, "flashes" and irritability it so often brings at such times!

Before another day has passed, try Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound or new, improved Tablets with added iron . . . and discover how much easier your "change of life" may be!

Younger women and girls—suffering from functional pains, monthly cramps and distress of menstruation — find Pinkham's wonderful tool! It contains no pain-deadening drugs!

It acts through sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of "heat waves"!

We The Satellites—III

Stalin Holds Iron Fist Over Poland, Buffer Between Russia and West

Chaotic conditions, and the grim overcast of fear, rule today in the European countries which Stalin has turned into colonies.

Of the satellites, Poland is particularly valuable to Stalin because it provides a bridge to Germany and the riches that lie beyond. How are things in Poland today? William L. Ryan interviewed scores of persons abroad and in the United States to present below the best available information. This is the third in a series of five articles on the satellites.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The spark of liberty still glows in subjugated Poland.

Many a Polish peasant risks his freedom and even his life to keep the spark aglow. Many a city dweller takes a long chance to give expression to his contempt for the Communists who are Moscow's willing tools.

Against the might of Soviet arms, against an army run by Russian officers and a secret police system which honeycombs the nation with spies, the Polish resistance is pathetically weak. But it is there—and it lives in hope that some day it will have help.

For more than seven years Stalin has been twisting the screws on Poland, transforming it into a Soviet colony. The Kremlin has installed a Soviet marshal with double Russian and Polish citizenship as its viceroy. But with each new indignity, the ancient enmity of Poles for Russians burns more fiercely.

Even the kids in the streets of Polish cities reflect sullen, bitter mockery for those who are Moscow's willing tools. They sing:

"Some patches in front, some patches in back, I am the son of a Democrat."

KIDS STILL IMITATE American ways, to the rage of the party. They go to extremes to try to dress American style and act like Americans, and the party rants about "western decadence."

There used to be American movies in Warsaw. Now there is nothing much but Soviet propaganda. The movie houses showing the Soviet films are almost empty, except when mass attendance is ordered by the party. Even then, from the darkness of the movie house come jeers and catcalls at Moscow propaganda.

They are still resisting on the farms. The stubborn Polish farmers shy away from collectivization. The government, fearing the consequences, must proceed slowly. Only about 5 per cent of Poland's peasants are on collective farms and 10 per cent more on state farms, which are bigger. Most of these are in former German territory. To make a collective, the old houses and buildings were destroyed and the peasants were forced into the system.

They are resisting in the forests and in the factories. A guess is that 60,000 persons are actively engaged in underground work in Poland. These include members of the PAK (Polska Armia Krajowa, or Polish home army) and the Roak, a movement which makes armed stabs against Communists. There have been arrests, trials and executions, but still the cells of resistance go on, working in units of three in attempts to escape detection.

HUMILIATION OF Communists is a Roak weapon. In one instance, Roak fighters seized a Communist official and stripped him. They sent the clothing to the local Communist leader with a letter telling of the incident. The story spread. In another instance, partisans invaded the home of a Communist village mayor, locked his family in the cellar and beat him up.

Many partisans have escaped from labor camps. They live off the land and peasants help them.

Enraged, the UB, the dread secret police, stage frequent roundups, frequent invasions of homes in the dead of night. Party activists also are sent out on spot checks and similar missions to root out partisans.

But the secret police fear enemies in their own ranks. UB agents spy upon one another. Many other spies are hired, some of them youngsters under 16.

The liaison department of the foreign ministry is controlled by the secret police, and so is the special school for training lower personnel and officials of the foreign ministry.

The system is one of terror. Its chief weapon is a chain of prisons and concentration camps.

The UB and its companion police organization, the KBW, or security force, are not responsible to the government. Like the army of 500,000 or more, the police units come under Konstantin Rokossovsky, a Soviet army marshal who is now Poland's defense minister and Moscow's viceroy.

Rokossovsky's right hand man is reported to be Marian Naszkowski, vice minister of national defense and head of the army's political division. About 42, he sevred in the USSR in the war. He is a protege of the woman Communist leader, Wanda Wasilewska, a trusted envoy to Moscow.

THE NEWLY ADOPTED constitution is virtually a carbon copy of the Soviet Union's. Communist control goes down to the smallest village.

The nominal heads of government are Boleslaw Beirut, president, and Joseph Cyrankiewicz, premier. The actual boss behind scenes of the party, has been Jacob Berman. Exile sources in the U. S. and abroad say he is still the leader but in danger as the Russians move toward absorbing the country. Double Soviet and Polish citizenship for Russians is commonplace now.

The party is laced with suspicion. Wladislaw Gomulka, former vice premier, awaits trial for "Titoism." Jailed also is the former army commander, Gen. Marian Spychalski. There had been reports that Hilary Minc, the Communists' economic boss, was in trouble too, but he is still riding high, after bowing to Moscow's demands to push through some unpopular measures.

The party's control, meanwhile, extends to each individual citizen under a new system of identity cards.

The USSR is erecting a monument to its domination of Warsaw. This is a 30-story building being built by Soviet engineers and workers to house the Academy of Sciences. It may also house headquarters of the Communist propaganda front, the World Peace Congress.

Although Poles suffered in the recent Polish currency reform, when the zloty was called in at the rate of one new for 100 old, the standard of living still apparently is above the Soviet average, a condition the Soviets will not long tolerate.

The effect of currency reform was to lower buying power, so that even with a wage rise, workers' incomes actually were severely cut.

A well paid person, such as a factory manager, can earn up to 1,800 zloty a month. A suit of poor quality costs him 1,000 zloty; shoes, 300; overcoat, 1,500; butter, 20 zloty a pound. Food is not plentiful either, principally because many peasants hoard their produce rather than turn it over to the state.

As for labor, a new census was undertaken recently in secret. Eventually it will send many white collar people into factory and mine work. The census excepts Communist party members and members of the Communist-controlled trade unions, which are creatures of the state. Where it is necessary to fill vacancies, women will be drafted.

Many Poles still hope for a day of liberation. The hope is shared by exiled leaders. Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, former premier and head of the Polish peasant party, is an exile in the United States. He puts it this way:

"It does not matter when, where or why the beginning of the liberation will come, but one thing is sure: Our people believe it will come, and they are able to endure the terror and intimidation. And surely in the decisive moment, they will rise up and help in the liberation of their country."

Union County Sheriff Gets Renominated

MARYSVILLE — Incumbent Sheriff Walter Galloway is practically assured of being elected to his office again in the fall following balloting in Tuesday's primary election.

Although he was opposed by four other Republican hopefuls, Galloway topped his closest competitor by almost 2,000 votes. There is no Democratic aspirant for the sheriff's office. Galloway will be unopposed in fall voting.

Voting for other offices followed similar lines with no Democratic contests.

A summary of the voting in the Republican contests follows:

Sheriff: Walter Galloway,2475; Donald Bigelow, 205; Fay Gibson, 257; Arthur Middleton, 376; and Homer Roosa, 769. County Commissioner: Charles Evans, 1607; Paul Pullman 2082, and Harry Reed, 1985. Recorder. Lawrence Rhoads, 1909; John Cooley, 696; and Robert Kinkade, 1224. State Representative: Clifton Caryl, 2669, and Beryle Marse, 1126.

Most of the Union County votes cast were Republican. There were 4207 Republican to only 998 Democratic.

No Judgeship Candidate Gets Enough Votes

Reports from election boards throughout the district today indicated that no candidate received enough write-in votes to secure nomination for an un-expired term on the Third District Court of Appeals.

Three Republicans and one Democrat had been conducting write-in campaigns for the party nominations. To be successful as a write-in candidate, the aspirant needed to poll 15 percent of the total vote cast in the 16-county district which includes Marion County. Election boards in the district reported the total write-ins would hardly total one per cent of the total vote

This means that the party nominees will be selected at party caucuses sometime this summer.

The candidate elected in the fall will serve out the unexpired term of the late Judge Walter S. Jackson of Lima, who died last February Temporarily serving on the bench is former Crawford County Judge C. U Ahl, who was appointed by Gov. Lausche after Jackson's death. He was the only Democratic candidate for the nomination

Republicans who sought the nomination were Common Pleas Judge Moran B Jenkins of Allen County, C C. McKay, Seneca County probate and juvenile judge, and Ray Younger, former common pleas and probate judge in Mercer County.

Wins Art Honors At Cleveland Show

Dean Ellis, Lakewood, O., artist, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs Paul Ellis of Cleveland are former Marion residents, added new laurels with his exhibits in the May show at the Cleveland Museum of Art Sharing in honors is his wife, Lois Rossbach Ellis, also an artist

Ellis received first prize in the industrial section with entry of an oil painting. Mrs. Ellis won a special award in her oil painting in figure composition. Her subject was Notes from a Primitive Instrument. A copy of the painting appears on the cover of the May issue of the Museum Bulletin.

Both Mr. and Mrs Ellis are graduates of the Cleveland School of Art

PGA LIFTS SUSPENSION

CLEVELAND (AP)—The district Professional Golfers Association has lifted its suspension of Jim Caspio, Cleveland district amateur champion. The suspension, in connection with a clubhouse crap game, barred him from participating in tournaments sponsored by the PGA.

Prune, Apple Pandowdy Good for Company

Company meals and spring fever, when they occur together, are indeed a troublesome pair But with a delightful and dependable dessert, like this prune and apple pandowdy on hand, you are assured of both an enjoyable meal and time for leisurely visiting.

PRUNE AND APPLE PANDOWDY

1 lb dried prunes, cooked and pitted
1 No 2 can (2½ cups) pie apples
1 cup prune juice
1 T lemon juice
½ cup unsulphured molasses
½ t nutmeg
½ t salt
¼ cup sugar
2 T butter or margarine
1½ cup sifted enriched flour
¾ t salt
2 t double-acting baking powder
¼ cup shortening
¾ cup milk

Heat oven to 450 F. (very hot) Pour prunes and apples in a 9-by-9-by-3-inch casserole. Pour prune and lemon juice, molasses, nutmeg, salt and sugar over fruit, dot with butter or margarine. Make dough for drop biscuit with remaining ingredients; drop in 9 mounds over fruit. Bake 25 minutes or until brown Serve warm Yields nine servings.

Sokolsky

ter than the multi-party arrangement, such as exists in France where governments topple overnight, or the one-party system which enslaves the whole people to a self-perpetuating elite

In this country, the two-party system has been developed to a greater efficiency than anywhere else for the oposition party, not only is capable of forcing the majority party to disclose its purposes and activities to the people, but by minority representation on the committees of both houses of Congress, the minority party is never without responsibility.

The reduction of the two-party system to a farce, as it must be when the members of one party vote in the primaries of the other party, could, in time alter the political procedures of the country by making, let us say, Republican candidates for a nomination dependent upon Democrats It is like boss Hague of New Jersey selecting, in the good old days, both the Democratic and Republican candidates for Governor—so that no matter who won, Hague managed.

WHEN IT IS coarsely stated in terms of a Hague overlordship, it is reprehensible to most Americans But when the process is refined into Democrats voting in the Republican primaries, it does not appear to be so offensive Actually it is worse, for it involves a subversion of the concept of the primary.

The trend among bankers and big busines men to support a one-party system is characteristic of their revolt against the professional politician, who is no longer dependent upon them for funds Democratic politicians get their money from labor unions and liberals, Republicans find campaign funds more readily in the Middle West and in Texas than in Wall street and Pittsburgh. The bankers and business men therefore seek a coalition of influence, which can be a one-party system set up by them

Their error is that fascism is as abhorrent to the American people as communism.

MATTRESS SET AFIRE

ATTENTION FARMERS!

DON'T BE SATISFIED WITH YOUR WINTER WHEAT CROP

One Spraying of "NA-CHURS" Liquid Fertilizer May Increase the Yield 5 to 15 Bushels Per Acre

Even if your wheat crops looks GOOD, you may still increase the yield by spraying now with "Na-Churs" Liquid Fertilizer. "Na-Churs" can help your wheat mature earlier, grow bigger, heavier seed, stronger straw and bring you a greater yield, even in cases of severe winter kill damage.
The wheat heads on the right in this picture received a one gallon per acre spray of "Na-Churs" when the plants were seven inches high. No other fertilizer was use on these plants. Those on the left had 400 pounds of fertilizer drilled in at planting time. Both were in the same field. The "Na-Churs" sprayed wheat yielded 30.93 bushels per acre at a cost of only $4 00 per acre, including labor; while the other part produced only 27 03 bushels per acre with a cost of $10 00 for the fertilizer alone.

HERE'S WHY "NA-CHURS" DOES THE JOB

• Fast Acting
• Economical
• No Waste

"Na-Churs" Liquid Fertilizer contains all the major plant nutrients plus valuable trace elements in complete solution, ready to go to work the minute they are applied. Even though you used other fertilizer at planting, right now is the time when your wheat needs the most nourishment. If your wheat doesn't have that dark green color it should have, or if it isn't growing fast enough, chances are it isn't getting the food it needs. "Na-Churs" spraying can provide this food in a completely liquid form, just the way plants use it. That's why "Na-Churs" works so fast and is so much more effective. You can usually SEE the difference in three or four days after spraying.

Campaign To End Saturday

Dinner Launches Annual Concert Member Drive

The membership campaign for the 1952-53 Marion Community Concert Association season got under way at a dinner and rally of workers Monday night at Hotel Harding Covers were placed for 99 Meeting with the workers was R M Simmons, field representative of Community Concerts, New York City.

Mrs. A. G. Birch, campaign chairman, addressed the workers on the importance of enrolling members and also providing everyone an opportunity to join the association She also gave a resume of attractions presented by the association since its organization The campaign will close at 5 p m Saturday, she stated

In his talk Simmons gave the background of the Community Concerts plan, inaugurated 20 years ago. There are now more than 1,000 cities now sponsoring Community Concerts, he stated

The basic reason of the success of these concerts, he pointed out, has been the guarantee of a concert series without entailing financial risk or obligation because concert artists and attractions are engaged at the conclusion of the membership campaign

The Marion association is again assured a minimum of three concerts. Referring to the privilege of tax exemption this season the workers were advised that next year's members will have increased value for their concert investment in that the entire amount of money will be used to provide the artist series

Referring to television as competitive entertainment Mr. Simmons stated it is now proving an asset in creating audiences for live programs

Gromek Allows Only Four Hits as Tribe Shakes Jinx

Indians Win, 1-0, in First Game at Yankee Stadium

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve Gromek, 32-year-old right-hander from Hamtramck, Mich., qualifies as a Yankee killer for the Cleveland Indians.

The veteran righthander, considered a second stringer on the Indian mound staff, pitched a neat 1-0 four-hitter in beating the Yanks and Allie Reynolds Tuesday night for the third time.

The last time Gromek started against the Yanks in Yankee Stadium—May 19, 1949—he trimmed the Bombers, 3-2. The time before that—in Cleveland in 1948—he downed the Yanks, 2-1.

Gromek's shutout was the first time a Cleveland pitcher has blanked the Yanks since Bob Feller's no-hitter in April 1946.

Steve not only handcuffed the Yanks with four singles but had the crowd of 35,914 limp at the finish when he retired the last three batters with the potential tying run on base.

The second string Indian starter wrote finis to his spectacular triumph by striking out Gene Woodling on three pitches. This is the same Woodling who hit five home runs against the Indians last year, each contributing to a victory. And this is the same Yankee team that defeated the Tribe 10 times in 11 meetings at Yankee Stadium last year. Moreover, in beating Reynolds he whipped a pitcher who thrashed the Indians five times last year, three times on shutouts, twice by a 1-0 score and once via a no-hitter.

STEVE GROMEK

Credits Sinker

"Credit the sinker I developed during spring training," Gromek said afterwards. "I had them off stride. My new sinker was working fine in the beginning and when they began to look for it, I switched to my fast ball which was 'alive.' It was breaking up and away."

The Indians' tally off Reynolds came in the second inning. It was scored on singles by Dale Mitchell, Ray Boone and Bhdie Tebbetts. Mitchell's hit was his first off the Yankee righthander since 1949 Cleveland's triumph, in the first clash of the season between the two leading contenders for the American League flag, kept the Indians within one game of the first place Boston Red Sox, who trounced the Chicago White Sox, 11-2.

Mike Garcia who has a 2-2 record will tangle with Yankees Vic Raschi (2-1) in today's meeting. In the finale Thursday will be Ed Lopat against the Tribe's ace, Bob Feller.

Larry Doby rejoined the Indians Tuesday and would have played if an early evening shower hadn't left the field slippery.

Doby, troubled with a pain in his groin and recurring trouble with pulled leg muscles underwent a complete physical examination in Cleveland Monday and was pronounced O.K.

He said he felt reassured now that he knows nothing is basically wrong with himself.

Pair of Homers

A pair of homers by Clyde Vollmer and another by Walter Dropo made it easy for Red Sox Righthander Willard Nixon to register his first triumph.

Conrad Marrero pitched the third place Washington Senators to their fifth straight victory with a 5-2 win over Detroit. Again Jackie Jensen and Archie Wilson, obtained from the Yankees last Saturday, were the big guns on attack for the Nats. Jensen doubled, drove in a run, stole a base and scored twice. Wilson hit a single and triple, scored once and batted in a run.

Duane Pillette pitched the St. Louis Browns back into the winning column with a 5-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics as Marty Marion and Clint Courtney each hit homers.

Brooklyn's Dodgers moved past New York's Giants into first place in the National League with a 10th inning 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Toeing off on former teammate Max Lanier and a parade of five additional hurlers for 15 hits, Eddie Stankey's St. Louis Cardinals snapped the Giants' seven-game winning streak with a 9-4 triumph.

Robin Roberts hurled a brilliant two-hitter as the Philadelphia Phils snapped a four-game losing streak with a 6-0 victory over Pittsburgh.

Johnny Klippstein pitched the Chicago Cubs to a three-hit 2-0 shutout over the Boston Braves in the only game played in daylight.

Answers Blast Leveled By Judge Streit

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The University of Kentucky acknowledged today its administrative officials and athletics staff are partially responsible for the basketball scandal that struck the school.

Eleven officials including Governor Wetherby and President H. L. Donovan of the university signed a preliminary statement replying to Judge Saul Streit of New York who denounced Kentucky's athletic spending and policies.

The judge let forth his multiple-charge blast a week ago as he gave suspended sentences to former Kentucky cagers Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Dale Barnstable who admitted taking bribes to fix games. The jurist was particularly harsh on Adolph Rupp, veteran basketball coach, and said he and the school must share responsibility.

The university replied "We do not contend that our record in this affair is above criticism . . . But in establishing an athletics program . . . we affirm that we shall be answerable to the people of Kentucky to the NCAA, and to our regional associations and that our policies will not be dictated by Judge Streit."

The school hit at the New York angle of the cage scandal which spread to eight schools and 30-odd players.

"It would be well for Judge Streit to remind himself that not the least responsible by any means are those who have tolerated the unsavory environment in which Madison Square Garden operates."

BACK IN UNIFORM. Baseball's highest salaried star, Ted Williams, smiles broadly as he climbs aboard a plane at the Willow Grove Naval Air Base in Pennsylvania. A Marine flier during World War II, Williams has just been called back to active duty and will serve a 17-month tour of duty.

"Grandpop" Leads Keglers in ABC National Tourney

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Maybe it pays to be a grandfather at 43. Maybe it helps your bowling game.

Roy Granneman of Waterloo, Ia., who is under this category, slammed a sizzling 1,957 Tuesday to go into second place in the all events of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

He started off with a sound 636 in the team event Monday night and got "hotter" as he went along Tuesday. He had 649 in doubles and 672 in singles to trail all events leader Steve Nagy of Cleveland by 108 pins. Nagy has been out in front since April 18 with 2,065.

Tops in the individual chase was veteran Ben Rose of Philadelphia who opened with 233 centered a 245 and finished with 198 for 676.

Laurels in doubles was shared by a Syracuse, N. Y. duo and a pair from Sioux City, Ia., at 1,252.

Dodgers Whip Reds, 5-4, On Pair of Homers

Win Boosts Brooks Past Giants Into National League Lead

CINCINNATI (AP)—The big fat home run ball being served up by Herman Wehmeier is beginning to give the Cincinnati Reds a lot of miseries.

Herman has a very fancy three won and none lost record but he has been able to go the route only once in five starts and he has given up seven of the nine home runs that have been hit off Redleg pitchers.

Two of them came Tuesday night as Brooklyn edged the Reds 5 to 4, in ten innings.

As in the opening day game however, Wehmeier was not charged with the defeat. He had bowed out after seven innings and with the Dodgers leading by 4 to 3.

The Reds finally tied it up in the ninth but a triple by Andy Pafko off Ken Raffensberger and a fly ball gave the Brooklyns their winning run in the tenth and tagged "Raffy" with his second defeat as against three victories.

Hodges, Snider Clout

The home run hitters for Brooklyn were Gil Hodges and Duke Snider. Hodges got his in the second inning. Snider lofted his shot out of the park in the seventh after Wehmeier had issued a walk to Pee Wee Reese.

Preacher Roe, Brooklyn's starting pitcher wasn't able to go the distance, either and it was young Billy Loes who eventually got credit for the Dodger victory.

He was lifted as the winning pitcher even though he helped the Reds a bit when they tied the score in the ninth. In that frame Joe Rossi singled, went to second on a walk then to third on a passed ball and scored on Hank Edwards' fly ball.

The Reds suffered a blow when Andy Seminick injured his ankle sliding into second base in the seventh. Seminick was rushed to a hospital but a preliminary examination did not show any bone fracture.

Brooklyn played the game without the services of Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella. Both were sidelined because of injuries.

Frank Hiller who has won three starting assignments in a row for Cincinnati, was slated to oppose Chris Van Cuyk in the series windup tonight.

Down Newark, 67-51

Geissler Runs 100 In 10 Seconds as Harding Wins 28th Straight

Coach Ken Somerlot's Harding High School track squad raced to its 28th consecutive win Tuesday at Newark, 67-51. The meet was originally scheduled as a triangular affair but Lancaster withdrew early in the day.

The Newark crew furnished the locals the toughest dual meet competition of the season. Harding was unable to pull away to a comfortable margin until the 880-yard run.

Paul Geissler was the man of the hour for the Prexy thinclads. He was highpoint man of the meet and established two new records. Running with a slight tail wind, he completed the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds for the fastest sprint ever turned in by a Harding runner. Then to prove it was no fluke, Geissler came back in the 220-yard dash to win in 21.8.

Harding came in with five other firsts. Jimmy Russell again won the shot put with a heave of 45-10. Captain John Ashworth finished ahead of the field in the mile run and the 880 while Ted and Fred Price gave the locals a clean sweep in that event. Jack Boxwell won the discus with a throw of 125-2. Dick Tway, Tom Morton, Glenn Craft and Ted Price collaborated to win the mile relay in 3.40.

One highlight of the meet was the performance of Harding's Don Ballenger in the pole vault. Ballenger, a senior out for his first track season, has never failed to clear 10 feet and Tuesday turned in a jump of 11 feet to finish second.

Jack Garver, Harding's No. 2 dashman, suffered a slightly pulled leg muscle in the 220 and was unable to finish the event. Loss of Garver would seriously affect Harding's chances in the dashes the rest of the season.

The next action for the locals will be Friday night at Fostoria in the annual Buckeye League Meet. The Prexies will be shooting for their second title in a row.

Results of the Newark meet follow:

Tonight's Winner Gets Title Shot

CHICAGO (AP)—Professional boxing's big time will be waiting off-canvas tonight for the winner of the 10-round Chicago Stadium bout between young and lusty Chico Vejar and studious Chuck Davey.

The victor of this rare match featuring two college men has been promised a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight championship. This would be an exceedingly rewarding venture judging by the way the Vejar-Davey fight has caught on here.

Promoters are predicting a turnout of 10,000 fans and a gate of more than $40,000, not including proceeds derived from sale of radio and television rights. The bout will be broadcast and televised nationally (9 p.m., EST).

Oddsmakers have favored Davey since the match was announced. Early figures ranged up to 2-1. Now they're about 6-5.

Previes Edged, 7-5

Harding Handed Fourth Loss By Lima Central

Racking up its seventh win in eight starts, the Lima Central nine downed Harding, 7-5 at Lima Tuesday. It was Harding's fourth loss in five games.

Harding scored in the top half of the first on a walk, a single by Eddie Morse and a Lima error. Lima struck back with four runs in its half of the first on three hits aided by two Prexy bobbles.

Lima picked up another run in the second to send them in front 5-1. In the Harding third walks to Nick Alex and Tom Tatham set the stage for Morse's triple. Morse then scored on an infield error to narrow the gap to 5-4.

Lima tallied single runs in the fourth and sixth before Harding scored its final run in the seventh on a two-base error, a wild pitch and a single by John Chafin.

Lima Southpaw Frail allowed only three hits, two of them by Eddie Morse. Compton gave up nine hits and walked none.

Delaware will come to Lincoln Park Monday to try for its second win over Harding. Delaware beat Harding in the opener, 7-3.

FIGHT NIGHT TONIGHT AT THE RITZ

Professional boxing has something of a face-lifting tonight when Chico Vejar and Chuck Davey clash in this 10-rounder. Vejar has a record of 24 knockouts in 42 fights and only one defeat. Davey is undefeated in 32 fights and has a record of 22 knockouts. This is a tough one to pick a winner but we predict Vejar will come out on top of the pile. This promises to be a real fight and you'll enjoy it more at The Ritz.

Six Teams Set To Open Action Next Week In Girls' Softball League

The Marion Girls' Softball League swings into action next Tuesday, Elmer E. Smith, league chairman, announced today.

League action will continue every Tuesday night through Aug. 19 at three athletic fields. Games will be played at Marion Industries diamond, Marion Power Shovel field and Marion Engineer Depot park. Game time for each session is 6:15 with a 6:30 forfeiture deadline.

The league will operate this season with a six-man setup rather than the four teams of last year. Set for their first year in action are L-K Sandwich Shop and the Ohio Associated Telephone Co., which will play under the banner Telco. Returning to action will be Marion Power Shovel, Marion Industries, Engineer Depot and Fulfillment Corp.

Smith At Helm

Smith will be back at the helm of the defending champion, Power Shovel. Jack Hughes has replaced George Wilcox as manager of the Marion Industries team. Bill Payette will guide the Fulfillment squad and Paul Anderson will hold the reigns of the Depot crew. Art Moore will handle the L-K team while Paul Cramer will boss the Telco girls.

Despite the fact the league probably will be stronger than last year, the campaign is expected to settle into a two-team race for the top spot. The Shovel team and Marion Industries crew are picked to give a repeat performance of last year's 1-2 race. The Shovel girls edged Motor Products, 5-4, in the championship game of last year's playoffs.

The playoff system for deciding the pennant winner has been revised. This year, a single elimination tourney replaces the double elimination setup of last year.

Returns At Shovel

Smith's Shovel crew will be bolstered by the return of June Blackford to the mound and Catcher Jeannalee Arndt. Miss Blackford was one of the loop's leading hurlers last year. Several girls returning from last year are counted on to furnish offensive power. These include Polly Biggert, Jean Dewoese, Gloria Cummings, Lois Monahan and Mary Barber.

Sally Murray will be returning to bolster the mound staff of the Marion Industries entry. She, along with Virginia Eby catching, could develope into the toughest battery in the circuit. Leading the Motor Products attack at the plate will be Miss Eby and Sally Murray, Joan Drake, Dorothy Smiley, Pearl Waggle, Lou Malone, Inoa Hickson and Norma Hoffman.

Officials of neither team will make any prediction on the outcome of the pennant race. Smith says his team will be shooting to protect the title won last year but added that the other five teams might have something to say about a repeat performance for the Shovel girls.

All games will be played over a seven-inning route. Four innings must be completed before a tilt will be considered complete in case of rain. If the score is tied at the end of the seven-innings, the game will go into extra innings to determine the winner.

The season will include three rounds. Should a different team cop the title in each round, the three will draw for the playoffs with one team getting the bye.

The opening night session at the Marion Industries Field, Power Shovel against Telco at the Shovel diamond and Fulfillment against L-K at the Depot park.

BOWLING RESULTS

Alyce Hyams with a 193 and Angie Jones with a 513 took top laurels in the final session of the Monday Night Ladies League at the Palace Recreation Center. Magers' 220 and Pancerev's 591 were tops in the Utility Loop while Andrews' 242-565 was high in the McMillen Feed League. Clark with a 245-597 was high as the Palace League rang down the curtain on its season. Decker led the Mercantile Loop at the Marion alleys with a 215-549. UMPIRE QUITS. Douglas (Scotty) Robb (above) has resigned as National League Umpire. Robb, a senior loop arbiter since 1947, sent league president Warren Giles a terse note that he was quitting. Neither Giles nor Robb offered any explanation, but the gossip immediately went back to April 22 when Robb and Manager Eddie Stanky of the Cardinals got into a ruckus after Scotty ordered Solly Hemus of the Cards out of a game.

Kansas City Crew Takes Over Third

The Kansas City Blues, off to a bad start in the American Association gradually have climbed to third place in league standings.

Their latest victory was Tuesday night at Toledo. The Blues won their second straight from the Mudhens, gaming a 9-8 decision when a four-run Toledo surge in the ninth inning fell short.

The Association leadership has been dominated by Milwaukee and Louisville for the last week or so. The Brewers, who lost to Columbus 3-2 Tuesday, are now a half-game up on Louisville's Colonels, who beat Minneapolis 7-2.

In Tuesday night's fourth league game, Indianapolis defeated St. Paul 9-7 in a game that marked Rex Barney's first appearance of the season for the Saints.

Columbus won its game with Milwaukee in the ninth, loading the bases and scoring the tying and winning runs on consecutive base hits by Howie Phillips and Dan Lynch.

Pitcher Tom Herrin was the hero of the Louisville victory over Minneapolis, scattering six hits for the victory. His mates scored six runs in the third inning.

Play Four Games In Opening Of YMCA Commercial Loop

Four games were played in the opening session of the YMCA Commercial Softball League Tuesday night. In a game played at McKinley Park, West Town Merchants belted UAW-CIO, 11-6. At Garfield Park, Bird-McGinnis posted a 6-5 win over K & W Plumbing. GI Post blasted Carl's Auto Parts, 12-2, and Smitty's All-Stars dumped Shantytown, 12-2.

The West Town Merchants clinched their win with a five-run outburst in the second inning on a single hit, an error and four bases on balls.

The Bird-McGinnis team took an early 4-0 lead in the first frame but was forced to go all out to down the scrappy K & W outfit. The Legion pushed across the winning tally in the eighth inning.

The GI Post sent 12 men to the plate in the fifth inning when they posted eight runs on six hits. Thorpe, Legion pitcher, gave up only four base knocks and struck out seven. The losers were charged with seven errors.

The All-Stars combined three tallies in the first frame, five in the third and four in the fourth to force the game to be called at the end of five frames. The Stars collected only nine hits from the slants of Jesse Harris but were aided by four Shantytown errors.

Robinson, Maxim To Sign Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Middleweight Champ Sugar Ray Robinson and Light Heavy Champ Joe Maxim were due to sign official contracts at the New York State Athletic Commission today for their June 23 Yankee Stadium match for the 175-pound title.

The International Boxing Club announced Tuesday the fighters agreed to an even 30-30 percentage split of the gate for both the June fight and a rematch in 90 days, if Robinson wins.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market was irregularly improved today with continued demand for railroad shares a feature.

The rise in carrier issues lifted this index to a new 20-year high. However, despite this showing, only a small number of industrials were able to attract buyers with many key issues inclined to ease.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE

In the pursuance of the order of the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, I will offer for sale at public auction on the 31st day of May, 1952, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. at the east door of the Court House in the City of Marion, Ohio, the following described real estate:

Situated in the County of Marion, in the State of Ohio, and in the Township of Prospect and being known as Lots Numbered Thirty seven (37), Thirty eight (38), Thirty nine (39), Forty (40), Forty one (41), Forty two (42), and Forty three (43) in the Town of Centerville as designated in Plat Records, Volume I, Page 73, Records of Plats in the Recorder's Office of Marion County, Ohio.

All of said lots lie immediately south of the first alley south of Main Street in Centerville, Ohio, and said Lot Number Forty three (43) lies immediately west of a county road. Each of said lots is Fifty five (55) feet wide with the exception of Lot Number Forty three (43) which is Thirty two feet wide. There is a house located on said real estate of about six (6) rooms. Said premises are appraised at Thirteen hundred Dollars ($1300.00) and must be sold for not less than two-thirds (⅔) of said appraised value and the terms of sale are Twenty (20) per cent of the sale price on day of sale and the balance one week from the following Monday after the date of sale.

Jesse B. Glassburn, administrator of the estate of Casper B. Schneider, deceased, Plaintiff.
BY John H. Clark, his attorney.
Case No. 19319.

LEGAL NOTICE

In the matter of the Joint County Ditch No. 426, petitioned for by Milton L. Hord, et al.,

To each person signing, or named in the petition and to each other person affected by said improvement.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 26th day of April, 1952, the above named petitioner filed a petition with the County Auditor of Marion County, Ohio, for the reconstruction, deepening, widening and straightening of Big Mud Run Ditch, located in Dallas Township, Crawford County, Ohio, and Scott Township, Marion County, Ohio.

The construction of the improvement is necessary and will be conducive to the public welfare.

The following is the course and termini of said proposed improvement, to-wit: Commencing approximately where the present line of Big Mud Run Ditch crosses the East and West half section line of Section 12, Dallas Township, Crawford County, Ohio; thence downstream on or near the line of the present open ditch through said Section 12, Dallas Township, Crawford County, Ohio, and Sections 13, 24, 25, 36 of Scott Township, Marion County, Ohio, to the Whetstone River or far enough for a good and sufficient outlet.

It is claimed that the improvement will affect property owned by you.

You are therefore notified that the Joint Board of Commissioners of Marion and Crawford Counties have fixed the 28th day of May, 1952, at ten o'clock A.M., at the upper terminus of the improvement for the view thereon, and have fixed the 9th day of June, 1952, at ten o'clock A.M., at the office of the County Commissioners in Marion, Ohio, for the first hearing on the proposed improvement.

Joint Board of County Commissioners of Marion and Crawford Counties
By W. S. Guthrie, Clerk.

WELL, LIEUT FORGE, I WAS STANDING ON THAT RIDGE WHEN AN OBVIOUSLY SPENT MISSILE CAME FROM OUT OF THE MIST AND SANK IN THE HARBOR
IT WAS SUCH A BIG, FRIGHTENING THING THAT I WROTE TO THE U S NAVY ABOUT IT
THEY MUST HAVE CHECKED THE ROYAL CANADIAN NAVY AND BY ELIMINATION CONCLUDED IT WAS A RUSSIAN PILOTLESS AIRCRAFT, FIRED FROM A SUB IN PRACTICE, WHICH HAD GONE OFF ITS COURSE AND ELUDED THE SOVIET RADAR
THE WEATHER STATION VENTURE HERE IS A CAMOUFLAGE . MAJOR CANYON DELIBERATELY SANK THE OBSOLETE EQUIPMENT AT THE PLACE I INDICATED - SO YOU AND YOUR DIVERS CAN FIND THE BOMB WHILE PRETENDING TO SALVAGE THE LANDING CRAFT
THE NAVY MUST HAVE TREMENDOUS CONFIDENCE IN YOU TO GIVE YOU SUCH AN IMPORTANT ASSIGNMENT!

EAT YOUR CARROTS
WHY DO WE HAVE TO EAT CARROTS IF WE DON'T LIKE THEM
BECAUSE CARROTS ARE GOOD FOR YOUR EYES
PARENTS ARE ALWAYS TELLING THEIR KIDS THAT KIND OF STUFF - WE WANT PROOF THAT CARROTS ARE GOOD FOR OUR EYES
WELL, YOU'VE NEVER SEEN A RABBIT WEAR HIS GLASSES, HAVE YOU?

McGill To Microfilm Rare English Books

MONTREAL (UP)—Officials of the Redpath Library plan to boost their stock with copies of all books published in England before 1641.

Richard Pennington McGill University librarian who already is custodian of some 650,000 books isn't worrying about the expense.

All the copies will be on microfilm.

He said thousands of books would be added to McGill's collection in that way, and most are of untold value from a collector's viewpoint.

Pennington who was credited with getting readers microfilm-minded said all editions of Shakespeare's plays also would be available at the library to help scholars check changes from edition to edition.

Surprise Patient

YORKTON, Sask. (AP)—Mrs. George Burrow started out as a visitor to the hospital and ended up as a patient. Within a few yards of the hospital she was bitten by a dog and required nine stitches.
